

UPSC SYLLABUS 2019

The Civil service exam is conducted in three phases:

Phase 1: Civil Services (Preliminary) Examination (Objective Type)

Phase 2: Civil Services (Mains) Examination (Descriptive Type)

Phase 3: Personal Interview (Personality Test)

PHASE 1: CIVIL SERVICES (PRELIMINARY) EXAMINATION

The Preliminary Examination is composed of two components:

General Studies

Civil Services Aptitude Test (CSAT)

| PAPER | SUBJECTS | TOTAL MARKS | DURATION |
|-------|----------------------|-------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 | General Studies (GS) | 200 | 2 hours (9:30 AM to 11:30 AM) |
| 2 | CSAT | 200 | 2 hours (2:30 PM to 4:30 PM) |

Broadly, the Civil Services (Preliminary) Examination consists of two papers of objective type, each of 200 marks (hence totalling 400 marks) and of two hours duration. To qualify for the Civil Services Mains, a candidate must attempt and clear both the papers.

To clear GS-1 Paper candidate must clear the cut-off mark declared by the UPSC and in CSAT paper, the candidate must score at least 33% of 200 i.e. 66 marks.

Further, the General Studies (GS) paper consists of 100 questions, while the CSAT paper consists of 80 questions. Both papers have negative marks for wrong answers marked to the tune of 1/3rd of the total marks assigned to that question.

To further illustrate this, each correctly answered GS question will be awarded 2 marks. So, 0.66 marks would be deducted from the total for every question that is wrongly marked.

Similarly, in the CSAT paper, since we have 80 questions for 200 marks, correctly answered CSAT question would attract 2.5 marks each, while every wrongly marked question would attract a penalty of 0.833 for each such wrong answer, which will be deducted from the total.

Questions that are not attempted will not attract any negative marks.

The two papers of the IAS prelims are discussed in detail below:

General Studies (GS)

The General Studies test is the first paper of the preliminary examination. This test is intended to test the general awareness of a candidate in a wide range of subjects that are included in the syllabus:
